

RISING SUN DANCE & THEATER

THE IMAGINE·A·NATION OF LALACHILD

A STAR CALLED LOVE
THE FREEDOM STORIES OF LALA

One Small Child... One Whole World, Wide-Open with Possibility!
May 6, 7, 27 Pacific Cultural Center, 1307 Seabright Ave, Santa Cruz

Welcome to 1890 Lovely, Kansas, a drought-stricken all-negro town, where a Chinese man rides a dust storm into ten year old Lala's home, wins her Mamalou's heart, and spurs the gossipy shock of everybody else...

"I felt like I was there. And I felt like I was a little girl again. A wonderful experience." ~ L.C.
"It made me light and happy. I would love for my mother to see it." ~ D.G

Live! Santa Cruz Community Choir Opening Night

Mother's Day Weekend Special Bring Mom, Get in For Free! (One Mom, One Guest!)

Fridays 8pm
Saturdays 8pm
Sat Matinee 2pm

And Don't Miss:

The Education of Lala Girl May 13, 14, 28*

The Emancipation of Lala May 20, 21, 28*

*8pm show

Admission $15, $12 Senior/Student/Advance
$36 All Three "Star Called Love" Plays (Any Days, Any Order)

Available @ BrownPaperTickets.com

www.risingsundancetheater.com / 831.421.9160 / www.seelalarun.com